

Indiana has a very effective telephone privacy law and we don't want it's effectiveness destroyed by special interests. Please do not let CBA foist their greediness on what is clearly the will of the people of Indiana.